POLTU QUATU CLASSIC 2020 - CONCOURS D'ELEGANCE FOR CLASSIC CARS

Poltu Quatu Classic returns to the scene of major international events with the fifth edition of the most glamorous Concours d'Elegance of the summer organized by Auto Classic and Between Communication in collaboration with the Grand Hotel Poltu Quatu and Bcool City Magazine. On July 10th, 11th and 12th, authentic four-wheeled jewels from the most important Italian and European collections of vintage cars will parade through the streets of the Costa Smeralda.

The GFG Style of Giorgetto and Fabrizio Giugiaro will bring to Sardinia as world premiere the two prototypes that were to be presented at the Geneva Motor Show, then canceled, we are talking about the futuristic GFG VISION 2030 and the Bandini Dora the 100% electric "Barchetta" that relaunches the famous Italian brand founded in 1946 by Ilario Bandini.

The Jury of the Competition will be chaired for the third year in a row by Paolo Tumminelli, the well-known automotive historian who has created and refined in recent years an almost infallible evaluation system. With him will be the well-known designer Fabrizio Giugiaro who will realize as a tradition the trophy "Best in Show" that will be awarded to the winning car of the Concorso d'Eleganza Poltu Quatu Classic 2020, Luciano Bertolero founder of Auto Classic and great expert Ferrari, Emmanuel Bacquet FIVA representative, Afshin Behnia CEO of Petrolicious, Alberto Vassallo CEO of Car and Vintage and J. Philip Rathgen CEO of Classic Driver, the three best-known social media in the automotive world.

The grand jury of the 2020 edition of Poltu Quatu Classic will be completed by other leading figures of the automotive world such as Carlo Di Giusto vice-director of AutolTaliana, Alberto Scuro president of ASI (Italian Historic Cars Association), Enrico Renaldini PR of Gare d'Epoca (the main Italian website dedicated to classic cars events), Shinichi Ekko journalist and president of Maserati Club Japan, Augustin Sebatié-Garat director of RM Sotheby's Europe and Ted Gushue internationally renowned photographer and editorial director of the new official magazine Porsche Type 7.

The innovations included in this year's program are mainly about the day on Saturday that will start in the morning with a long scenic tour of the Costa Smeralda through a route designed ad hoc by the organizers to give the participants unforgettable scenarios to admire behind the wheel of their cars. The rest of the day will be lived in total relaxation in the famous Vesper Beach of Capriccioli made famous by the movie "007 - The Spy Who Loved Me" where the protagonist Roger Moore emerges with his car from the crystal clear water of the Costa Smeralda in the company of Barbara Bach and where the protagonists of Poltu Quatu Classic 2020 will be guests of the Vesper Beach Club. There will be no shortage on the way back to Poltu Quatu the passage and exhibition of the cars of the Concorso in Porto Cervo at the time of the aperitif. Confirmed the performance at night of the final parade of cars in front of the Jury that will take place Saturday, July 11th after the Gala Dinner at the Grand Hotel Poltu Quatu in the famous Piazzetta illuminated by day for the occasion.
